Opening Remarks

Congressman Gregory W. Meeks
Co-Chair,
JFK Redevelopment Community Advisory Council

Queens Borough President Donovan Richards
Co-Chair,
JFK Redevelopment Community Advisory Council

Borough President Donovan Richards

BP Richards welcomed everyone and applauded Congressman Meeks for his leadership as the highest ranking Democrat on the Foreign Affairs Committee, as well as Chair of the Queens Democratic Delegation. Congressman Meeks could not attend due to his Congressional obligations dealing with the unrest in Israel and Palestine, as we all pray for peace in the region.

BP Richards highlighted the importance of our presence in Far Rockaway and our obligation to invest in our historically underserved communities. This 19 billion dollar redevelopment is a critical opportunity to make these investments right here in Queens. He noted that economic development does not equal community development, so we have to ensure every area of our community experiences the necessary investments to create economic mobility.

BP Richards thanked the JFK Redevelopment team for all their efforts to ensure that information is disseminated across our communities as well as these quarterly update meetings.

BP Richards urged us to center our investments in conversations with communities like Southeast Queens, especially in Far Rockaway. He celebrated the following milestones:

- The construction support services, which will have a major positive impact on the community. This will help to improve the air, the air quality in the community, and reduce the number of trucks, especially as we talk about the Van Wyck.
- Successful MWBE procurement
- The first graduates of the Institute of Concessions which is critical in ensuring that we have upward mobility in our communities in every terminal

He was not shy about talking about the talent in Southeast Queens having opportunities to see success in their entrepreneurial endeavors, especially coming out of the pandemic. The success of these businesses creates upward mobility for our communities. The progress of this development impacts the future. He emphatically declared Queens IS the future.

As the Borough President who represents this community, he shared a bigger vision for the entire borough which includes housing. With commercial development, there's a real opportunity to move people up the economic ladder. That ladder for communities like Southeast Queens, especially in the Rockaways is critically important. The outreach opportunities that this project has developed, especially on the MWBE front has been impressive.

He acknowledged that many of the terminals have gotten this investment right, while some terminals got it wrong. He pointed out that Terminal 6 needs to get it right. This community is not going to settle for crumbs as we talk about at 19 billion dollar development happening across all terminals. He noted that Congressman Meeks shares the same sentiments.

His goal is not to be the nice guy and he is willing to be the wrong guy, if it impacts this community and pointedly stated Terminal 6 needs to get it right in terms of MWBE procurement.

He also shared that if he was a part of the other developments that came before him, he would have pushed more but the bottom line is that we are where we are now. As the sitting Borough President, he is committed to making sure there's upward mobility for black and brown communities who have long suffered from not having that MWBE component.

He started his closing remarks with thanking Congressman Meeks for his partnership as Co-Chair and he thanked the JFKR Advisory Council for the work on local hiring and the developers who have gotten it right. Concessionaire agreements and job opportunities are more important than trying to be friends. This work is about life and death for many of our communities members.

BP Richards reiterated that we have to get it right. Equity is creating pathways to the middle class and no one feels that they are being left behind. He committed to be here every step of the way whether it's popular or not to make sure that our communities get it right.

He reminded Terminal 6, they have an obligation to this community, just as the Governor's office and the Port Authority has an obligation to make sure that we are not being left behind.

He reiterated his interest is not to seek friendship. It is to make sure that the people in Rockaways and Southeast Queens get every opportunity that they deserve. He closed urging everyone to “get it right” and thanked all of those who are playing a role in a successful partnership.

Greetings

Ms. Rachelle Antoine
Co-Manager of External Affairs and Community Outreach
JFK Redevelopment Program

Mr. Akshar Patel
Co-Manager of External Affairs and Community Outreach
JFK Redevelopment Program

Rachelle Antoine

Rachelle expressed that no one is exempt from this great work that is being done in the community. With a goal to get it done right and fair the support of the Advisory Council is needed in terms of participation and to ensure that our community is present. She also reminded the terminal developers, there's a lot of work that needs to be done and the Outreach Center is able to bridge the gap to the community. She thanked the Advisory Co-Chairs Borough President Donovan Richards and Congressman Gregory Meeks for the work their work and support.

Akshar Patel

Akshar shared that as the premier international destination in the United States, JFK competes with its counterparts in London and Dubai. The goal is to have a 21st century airport, that is a gold standard around the world. He shared his excitement about the initiatives that are happening and that have been launched from thanks to the work of the elected officials from the Advisory Council. His personal expectation is that the future Chief Engineer from Boeing or CEO of Jet Blue is coming from our community. The initiatives and support systems that are being put in place will make sure it's a reality, especially with the leadership of all the Advisory Council members, Terminal Developers, & Community.

T8 COMMUNITY ART SHOWCASE

We are seeking Queens-based artists to delight and enhance the guest and terminal experience at T8. These seasonal showcases will elevate temporary spaces with art that reflects our Queens community and resonates with travelers.

+750 SF of space in the main terminal will be dedicated to our first seasonal showcase in Q1 2024.

Featuring local artists exclusively, the selected works may consist of graphic arts, paintings, photographs, sculptures, collages and large-scale mixed media.

Timeline (Q1 2024):

- Work with local Art Studios for an inclusive "Call for Artists"
- Identify temporary (3+ months) spaces throughout the terminal for seasonal showcases
- Select artists by a committee of art advocates
- Install art in phases

NEW TERMINAL ONE IN THE NEWS

On Sunday September 24, The New Terminal One at JFK President and CEO, Gerrard P. Bushell, Ph.D, sat down with Sandra Bookman on abc7NY Here and Now to talk about how ensuring opportunities for minority and women-owned businesses is intrinsically woven in our DNA. "We have to drive revenue and be successful, but we also have to be inclusive in terms of the community, making sure there is a window and access point for people who want to be part of this incredible experience." - Dr. Bushell

THE NEW TERMINAL ONE LEGACY AND IMPACT

- We were thrilled to support the JFKR Girls in Aviation Day by sponsoring a model aircraft building station hosted by our Chief of Staff Uzo Okoye, Esq., Justin Deebrah and Rosalie Polanco from our Diversity and Community Engagement team.
- NTO recognizes the importance of creating jobs, supporting local businesses, promoting diversity, and providing opportunities to the local community, including our children, while we deliver of a world class terminal.
- The reimagined terminal will have state-of-the-art technology, best sustainability practices, public art, local concessions, and revamped roadways to create a transformative and positive world-class passenger experience.
- NTO is coordinating the Art and Branding program with the PA towards the 2026 opening.
- Our extensive partnerships with the community and labor will drive historically high diversity participation and deliver jobs, intentional social impact, and real economic opportunities for Southeast Queens and the surrounding communities for generations to come.

The Port Authority of New York and New Jersey and JFK Millennium Partners (JMP) today announced a partnership with Public Art Fund, the leading independent nonprofit organization dedicated to art in public spaces, for the design and installation of public art commissions at the newly designed New Terminal B at La Guardia International Airport.

As PAF has done 542 public art projects across the United States and Puerto Rico, it will lead the installation process for the new Terminal B at La Guardia International Airport, and will work closely with the Port Authority and the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey to ensure the art is integrated into the new Terminal B.

Public Art Fund is a nonprofit organization that has been instrumental in the design and installation of public art projects across the United States, including the new Terminal B at La Guardia International Airport. Terminal B will also be the first to feature a dedicated public art space, including a new public art gallery.

Q&A

Thank You!

Question (Assemblyman Anderson)

What are the priority zip codes (11691-11693, 11434, 11413) outreach for the MWBE Community ?

Answer (Akshar Patel)

For these Rockaways zip codes, we've started a concentrated outreach including having this Advisory Council meeting in the Rockaways. Mobile office hours have been scheduled in the Rockaways and in partnership with Councilwoman Selvena Brooks-Powers next Thursday 11am to 3pm. In two weeks time, on November 16th (in this building) at 6pm there will be an information session. Terminal developers talk one on one with businesses to make sure they know what the next steps are with getting started/ getting certified.

Question (Assemblyman Anderson)

Please share the hiring numbers for seal workforce developers or prevailing wage jobs.

Answer (Hersh Parekh)

All of the construction jobs on the terminals are union jobs. These are all union labor projects. And so that includes payment of prevailing wage. All the construction jobs are fully union built projects. As Yvette said in her presentation, we work with the unions to place local residents from those unions onto the job site. We have some upcoming plans to increase the membership from our local communities in the Building and Construction Trades Union. More to come on that as well.

Question (Assemblyman Anderson)

Programs for CEO targeted goals. What are the medium salary levels of placement for these target ZIP codes?

Answer (CAO)

Medium salaries is typically about $19 an hour. That's the entry level wage that does go up from there. I can look at the data get back to get a little bit better answer but it's probably between like 19 to $21 an hour, somewhere around there.

Question (NYS Senator James Sanders)

What is the status of the business incubator request?

Answer (Hersh Parekh)

We are working on our next round of initiatives, as we described, the first round, are fully in progress fully in place. The business incubator is part of our second round of initiatives that we are working to develop, with our community partners with our terminal developers. More to come on the second round, which will include the business incubator.

Question (NYS Senator James Sanders)

Since Tier 1 is the most local, therefore most important, how do we increase it?

Answer (Dr. Stacie NC Grant)

All the terminal developers will be available to answer questions after the meeting. They will underscore what you're doing for the local effort and increasing those local efforts outside of what you shared in the meeting.

Question (NYS Senator James Sanders)

[Directed to Terminal 6 re: Tier 1 local participation] What is the plan to change the dismissal situation, especially for the Black & Brown population?

Answer (Dr. Stacie NC Grant)

T6 already addressed their plan to change the situation for our black and brown communities.

Question (George Flores)

At the office hours I attended, I believe it was said that I could receive a link to a capability statement template via email. Can I still get it?

Answer (Dr. Stacie NC Grant)

The Terminal Developer will make sure that you receive it.

Question (Anonymous)

What is the completion percentage for T4, and the starting percentage for T6, we are trying to understand the large gap in MWBE awards from 22% to 9%.

Answer

Terminal Developers will be available at their tables after the meeting to discuss

Question (V-Noel)

Do we need to be a Queens community company in order to participate in helping to rebuild Queens?

Answer

No
